Mrs. Leonard Jones returned to her home at Tina yesterday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jones.

Miss Elizabeth Hardy of Sumner returned home Sunday after spending several days here, guest of Miss Georgia Loesa Welsh.

There will be an ice cream social at the church in Forker next Monday evening, the Fourth, to which all are invited.

To rid your place of those troublesome and expensive rats, get some Rat Snap at Barton's drug store. It sure does the work.

Dr. Edwards and Hazzard of Linneus will open an office in Laclede at the residence of Able Harding, Days, Wednesday of each week.

The Houston jewelry store was broken into Friday night and robbed, the loot being valued at about $75. No clew has been obtained.

Miss Cora Heath, who underwent a slight operation at the Brookfield hospital last week, is home and getting along nicely, which is good news to her many friends.

Don't fail to attend the picture show Saturday night and see Anne Cornwall in "The Path She Chose" and one of those clever monkey comedies, "Jungle Gentlemen."

Why did our bread sales for last week amount to 540 loaves? The answer is easy. We sell four loaves of the freshest, whitest best tasting bread you ever ate for 25c. The Home Store.

Martin Higgins and son Paul of Lamar, Mo., who have been here for a month visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Higgins, left Tuesday for Rochester, Minn., where the young man will enter the Mayo hospital for eye trouble.

Passing of Former Citizen

Mrs. R. L. Balcom received a telegram Wednesday announcing the death of her father, Chas. H. Arbuckle, which occurred in California where Mr. and Mrs. Arbuckle had spent the past year. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

Mrs. Arbuckle with the remains expects to reach Kansas City Saturday morning and go from there to Kingston, Ill., over the Milwaukee, where the funeral will be held Sunday, according to present plans. Another daughter, Mrs. Walter Rankin and family live near Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Balcom will join Mrs. Arbuckle at Chillicothe and accompany her to Kingston, Ill., for the funeral.

Deceased was 64 years old and with his family resided on a farm south of town for several years. He was a good man and highly respected by a large circle of friends who extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Died at Infirmary

Harry Quinton, who was sent from Laclede to the county infirmary last fall, died in that institution Wednesday morning. The remains were brought to his home here that evening and yesterday morning given burial in the Locust Creek cemetery southwest of town. He was 62 years of age and had lived many years in the vicinity of the old Woodland mills but when his health gave way he became a county charge. He leaves a wife and four children. Rev. Ralph Craig officiated at the funeral.

Moral in Movies

Every mother should bring her young daughter to see "The Path She Chose," at the Laclede theatre Saturday night. It drives home a lesson by telling an interesting story with the moral merely incidental to an evening's entertainment. Anne Cornwall's portrayal of the leading role is admirable.

Buttermilk by the Barrel

The Laclede Cooperative Company delivered nearly a car load of condensed buttermilk to the hog raisers of this vicinity Tuesday. This by-product from the big creameries is a money maker to hog feeders and its use is becoming general.

Spotted Hog Sale

Frank S. DeWolf of Braymer, president of the Missouri advertising syndicate, spent Tuesday with Grover F. Peacher, breeder of Spotted Poland China hogs. Mr. DeWolf took the contract to advertise Mr. Peacher's fall sale to be held October 4.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

The present fine condition of the main streets of Laclede after more than a week's rain is convincing testimony to the value of oil on dirt roads. While streets and roads not oil treated were "hub deep" with mud the oiled streets were dry and hard as pavement, and the better thing is there will be no dust.

The Holiness people are holding a tent meeting on the school house grounds with services each evening at 8:00 and Sunday services at 11:00 a. m.; 3:00 and 8:00 p. m. The meetings are in charge of Evangelists, Rev. P. C. Norton, Rev. Homer Jolly and wife with Miss Marie Gleason, song leader. The meetings are scheduled to run to July 10.

Miss Georgia Loesa Welsh entertained with a bunking party last Friday night followed by a 9:00 o'clock breakfast Saturday morning in honor of her guest Miss Elizabeth Hardy of Sumner. Those present were Miss Hazel Wilson, Miss Bernice Chinn, Miss Francis Talbott, Miss Fern Thurman, Miss Ethel Garside, Miss Lois Gould and Miss Elizabeth Hardy.

Elmer Kling is this week installing a Delco light and power system at his home south of town. There is no greater convenience on the farm than electricity and the Delco systems being sold and installed by Z. R. Kling are bringing joy to many a farm household in this county. If you haven't a plant at your home better see Mr. Kling and have one installed ready for next winter.

On returning from church last Sunday Clifford Shell missed his work shoes from the back porch of his home. By making a little inquiry he learned that a colored boy was seen to take them. The boy had been around here several days but disappeared Sunday night. He was trailed to Brookfield and the shoes recovered from his home. He is reported to have also taken some clothing from a colored family in the east part of town. He has not yet been prosecuted. The boy is about 15 years old.

Catalogs are being printed by The Blade this week for the Duroc Jersey hog sale to be held July 20 by Messrs. Endicott, Hogsett, McKanna and Clinefelter. There will be 40 bred sows in the sale, all purebred and either registered or eligible to register. The sale will be held at the grain house of the Cooperative Company to begin at 12:30. Col's Fleming and McCollum are the auctioneers and M. P. Benson, clerk. The sale is being extensively advertised and buyers are expected from all parts of Linn and many from adjoining counties.

There will be no delivery of mail on rural routes next Monday, the Fourth being a holiday for the carriers.

Music Director Praised

Miss Grace V. Wilson, director of music in the public schools at Topeka, Kans., spent Friday and Saturday with relatives and friends here, leaving Saturday night for Chicago.

We recently noticed a very complimentary notice in the Topeka Daily Capital of the work Miss Wilson is doing in the Topeka schools. The notice was prompted when one of her students won first prize in bass solo at the state high school music contest held at Emporia. The Capital says:

"The success of these various musical organizations is due to the hard and everlasting work which Miss Wilson has supervised. The high school is proud to boast of a teacher like Miss Wilson and of the musicians studying under her supervision."

Miss Wilson's many friends here at her old home congratulate her on the success she is achieving in her chosen work.

She has been reelected to the Topeka schools for next year.

Jones-Perry

Mr. Lyman B. Jones of St. Joseph and Miss Ada Perry were united in the holy bonds of wedlock last Sunday, Rev. Ralph Craig performing the ceremony at the home of the officiating minister. The bride is the daughter of Mr. David Perry living southwest of town, loved and respected by a large circle of friends. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jones of Laclede and is well and favorably known here where he was born and grew to manhood. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left that afternoon for St. Joseph where they will reside at 3812 Terrace avenue, the home having been furnished and made ready in advance. They have the very best wishes of their many friends here.

"To Hell and Back"

Who are there? Hope for the return of many."

The above will be the subject of an address to be given at the opera house in Laclede, July 4th, 3 p. m., under the auspices of Associated Bible Students.

While the topic has a sensation appearance it will be treated in a very reverent, and scriptural manner.

Come and hear the Truth about Hell.

Admission free and no collection.

Bible students will celebrate the Fourth in a one day convention, rendering thanks and praise to the Creator for such a day and for the liberty and independence for which it stands.

Reduction on Millinery

Friday and Saturday, July 1 and 2, all millinery on hand will be placed on sale at a very low figure. Also to reduce my stock of toilet articles will sell this line at one-third off. As this week closes the summer season my books will be open for settlements on those two days.

With many thanks for all past favors, I solicit your patronage in the future. Mrs. Linn.

Hemstitching

Quick return. Mrs. Gene Bryan, second house north of Baptist church, 521 Linn street, Brookfield, phone 382W.
